

GOAL ACADEMY

Description of Application Requirements –Executive Director

Opening Date March 1, 2016

Please submit application materials by March 21, 2016

GOAL Academy is a blended learning, charter high school serving more than 4000 students throughout Colorado. GOAL's focus and mission is to serve traditionally underserved and at-risk students, reaching students where they are with comprehensive wrap-around services to assist them in graduating with the life skills to become productive members of society.

GOAL Academy is designated as an Alternative Education Campus (AEC) by the Colorado Department of Education, meaning that at least 95% of GOAL Academy's students meet one or more of 14 high-risk criteria (e.g. dropout, teen parent, history of gang involvement, adjudicated youth, homeless).

GOAL Academy operates 32 Education Zones at sites across Colorado, ranging from urban centers like Denver, Greeley, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, and Grand Junction to small rural towns like Craig, Pagosa Springs, La Junta, Trinidad, and Alamosa. Applicants should provide the following:

1. A GOAL Application for Employment form.
2. A cover letter stating your reasons for applying for the position and explaining why you believe an educational environment is the best fit for your talents and qualifications.
3. A resume
4. A separate document explaining:
 - A description of your educational philosophy with regard to blended learning environments.
 - A list of the positions in which you have managed a multi-site organization, including the number of sites and the budget size of each.
 - A detailed description of your management responsibilities in each educational organization you have served, including what position you reported to and what position(s) reported to you.
 - A one-page explanation of the methodology you have used in the past to manage the milestones identified in your school's Unified Improvement Plan (UIP).
 - For each of your management positions, a summary of the type of financial oversight that was required by the position, and
 - A list of the situations in which you have worked with a Board of Directors.

The hiring salary range for this position is $_____ to $_____ per year.
